

Wisconsin Department of Justice is looking for:

Youth Commissioners

WISCONSIN GOVERNOR'S JUVENILE JUSTICE COMMISSION (GJJC)

The GJJC strategizes ways to support youth in need and improve the juvenile justice system. The Commission recommends policies to the governor and state legislature and advocates for better programs and services for youth.

Resources:

- GJJC Member Handbook
- Coalition for Juvenile Justice Youth Manual

JOIN TODAY!

MORE INFO:

- ATTEND QUARTERLY MEETINGS
 - PARTICIPATE IN A SUBCOMMITTEE
 - MAKE MOTIONS AND VOTE
 - RECEIVE COMPENSATION
 - BUILD YOUR RESUME
 - INFLUENCE CHANGE
-

If you are interested in becoming a Youth Commissioner, contact Kiley Komro: komrokr@doj.state.wi.us or (608) 716-9185, or apply directly via the Governor's Apply to Serve webpage.